Phil. 4" — I have learned, in whatever state I am therein to be content. —

Thus — the can determine our own thanksgiving ~~The source of our thankfulness — not in external blessings but in our own heart~~

Intro:

Not a thanksgiving sermon but one that concerns our thanksgiving.

The source of our thankfulness not in external blessings, but in our own hearts.

Different effects from the same cause — a medicine kills one patient & cures another. The same event will leave different impressions in the minds of different persons

The world is not the same to all persons.

The difference cannot be on the outside, but on the inside of us.

External things, then, cannot need not determine our thankfulness for us.

Health & plenty, friends & loved ones - make us happy? yes - & thankful? not necessarily.

Sickness & want & loneliness make us unhappy? yes - & unthankful? not necessarily

You may ~~see evil~~ look at evil, but by turning your attention to the good & thus overcome them. You may hear the voice of temptation but determine to listen to the voice of God.

You may have an inherited temperament that makes you naturally unthankful & unappreciative, but if you & God determine to change it, it will give way to another.

You are not responsible for the traits & disposition you are born with - but you are responsible for the traits & disposition you die with because by attending to them you can change them to suit your purpose

With God all things are possible thru the exercise of our attention.

Saul became Paul. You can be born again. No matter what star you were born under, you may be born again under the star of Bethlehem, with a disposition thankful ~~& loyal to~~ and a heart loyal to God, with eyes that see Truth spiritually & with ears that hear the voice divine.

I taught this truth again & again - he ~~who~~ gains who loses; he loses who neglects. Seek God first
